

2-3 DAYS ITINERARY

Historic Colonial Home Takeover

Bathurst is Cool

DAY 1

ARRIVAL & WELCOME

- Afternoon arrival and check-in to your chosen historic estate.
- Welcome drink on the verandah
- Light supper or grazing board featuring Central West produce.
- Evening at leisure: board games, wine, books, open fires, deep quiet.

DAY 2

LONG LUNCHESES & LOCAL STORIES

- Lazy cooked breakfast served at the homestead.
- Mid-morning heritage walk or guided storytelling (property history + Bathurst's colonial past).
- Late morning departure for a village drive through Rockley or O'Connell.
- Long lunch experience (choose one):
- Country pub lunch at The Rockley Pub (owned by Matt Moran).
- Or catered long-table lunch back at the estate with local wines.
- Afternoon wine tasting at a local winery of choice.
- Return to the homestead for a rest, garden wander or sunset drinks.
- Optional private chef dinner, catered feast or self-cooked group meal.

DAY 3

SLOW FAREWELLS

- Final breakfast together at the estate.
- Morning stroll through gardens and surrounding countryside.
- Optional stop at a cellar door, bakery or antique store on the way home.
- Take advantage of Littlebourne's Sunday stay free offer with lunch & Sunday session at either O'Connell Hotel or Reckless Brewing Co.

ACCOMMODATION OPTIONS

Littlebourne Estate

Just outside Bathurst, Littlebourne Guest House is a beautifully restored 1830s heritage residence offering refined boutique accommodation. Individually styled suites blend colonial elegance with modern comfort, set among rose gardens, wide verandas and peaceful country surrounds - ideal for a quiet escape or special occasion.

Lawsons Estate on Macquarie Farm

One of the earliest European farms west of the Blue Mountains, Lawsons Estate offers heritage accommodation within original 1820s homestead and convict barracks buildings. Stone walls, riverside landscapes and layered history create a timeless country retreat grounded in place and story.

Yarras Homestead

Set across 520 acres of rolling countryside, Yarras Homestead is a nearly 200-year-old estate restored with care and contemporary country style. With river frontage, historic buildings and wide open spaces, it offers a scenic and soulful setting for stays, gatherings and celebrations.